(54) Title: AIRTIME CONTACT MANAGER

(57) Abstract: A method and apparatus for monitoring contact usage and activity of a wireless communication device, including a wireless telephone and a PDA device. The method and apparatus provide for detecting and monitoring each communication from selected contacts and displaying the usage information associated with the contact. Contact usage information is also provided to a server which allows the information to be modified prior to being used to generate a bill for the contact.
